

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.

Pentecost – June 4, 2017
Text: Numbers 11:24-30
Theme: A Right Understanding

But how do you know? That is a question that has been asked of me many times. But how do you know? Regardless of what it is, when I state the answer, I hear, “But how do you know?” “How can you be so confident?” “Why do you always think you’re right?” I answer that question with something that tends to irritate the person even more, but it is the truth. It’s not that I think I’m right. It’s that I know I’m right. How can I be so certain?

I have been given a right understanding. That is what we prayed for in the collect today and I believe that God gives us what we ask for when it is his will and it glorifies him. We prayed,

“Grant us in our day by the same Spirit to have a right understanding in all things and evermore to rejoice in His holy consolation.” Now, understand this. I do not answer conclusively unless the question falls within the Lord’s parameters and therefore, I am certain that I am right. And I am only certain that I am right in matters of faith and doctrine because I am not speaking my opinion but the Lord’s Word. So if you ask me if you should diversify your portfolio by purchasing stock in a local start-up, I will refer you to Matt Thompson who knows infinitely more about money than I do. If you ask me what that weird clunking sound is

whenever you turn corners I will refer you either to Mike Ticaric or Dr. Boudro, depending on whether the sound is coming from you or your car. But if you ask me if breaking the 4th Commandment will really have any serious consequences for you, I will answer yes with decisiveness and you will know that I know I am right. I will speak as one with authority because that authority has been given to me.

But here's something that too few Christians know. The authority has been given to you as well. Jesus said in our Gospel,

"Whoever believes in me, as the Scripture has said, 'Out of his heart will flow rivers of living water.'" Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified." He said, "Whoever believes in me." He did say those who believe in me and have a certain degree or a certain title. Whoever believes in Christ will be like the men of whom we are told in Numbers.

We're told that Moses prayed for some help and God lowered his Spirit unto men who then began to prophesy. The word for Spirit is also the Hebrew word for breath. You only know whether it is "Spirit" or "breath" from the context of the word. But in Numbers we see God breathe out his Spirit unto the men who were

to help Moses and the breath of God, the same breath which gave life to Adam, changed them so that they would be able to do what God needed them to do.

Now Jesus gives that Spirit to all of us. The Holy Spirit gives us a right understanding in all things and when we are speaking what the Spirit speaks we know without a doubt that we are right. In fact, the only time on this earth that I know that I am right is when I am saying what God has already said. And the more you read the Scriptures, the more you know. God has had everything we need to know written down and he gives that book to us.

So, if you get irritated that I am speaking as though I know I'm right, remember that you too can do the same. You too can speak with complete certainty whenever you are speaking what God has said. That is how you know. When the Baptismal waters were poured over your head the Holy Spirit entered you and opens your heart and mind to rightly understand the Holy Scriptures. Read them. Memorize them and have a right understanding of all things that are most important.

This is an enormous gift that has been given to you. Please understand that unbelievers are not necessarily refusing to believe. It may well be that the Holy Spirit has not opened their hearts and they cannot believe. I know it seems easy to you. You have the

Holy Spirit dwelling within you and they do not. All we can do is what the prophets of old did. We proclaim God's Word over and over again. We tell people of God's love for them, especially children because their hearts are not yet hard. And we pray for the Spirit to work yet again.